Why this form?

You can use this form to apply for a refund of deducted Dutch dividend tax. You can apply for one or more refunds in the year in which the dividend was paid out. Once the year has ended, you can do this once only. You can only apply for deducted Dutch dividend tax. Applications regarding foreign dividend tax should be made to the tax authorities of the country in question.

Conditions for a refund

You may only receive a refund if you meet all of the following conditions:

- You are established in a country other than the Netherlands.
- You are exempt from profits tax in this country.
- If you would be established in the Netherlands, you would be exempt from corporation tax.
- You do not act as an investment institution.
- Dutch dividend tax of more than € 23 was withheld from the income from shares (and not from the income from dividend coupons).
- You are the beneficial owner of these shares.

Please note!

Are you established in a country outside the EU or EEA and is there a regulation between the Netherlands and your country on the exchange of information? In that case, you may only receive a refund of dividend tax withheld from portfolio dividend.
